Clarion County Assistance Guide

Utility, housing, emergency help and related local resources

22 published resources serving Clarion County

This guide includes all current published directory resources whose stated coverage includes this county, including multi-county programs. It is not limited by website search filters.

A courtesy directory, not a guarantee of funding, eligibility or placement. Programs, hours, deadlines and waiting lists change. Confirm details directly with the provider. For additional referrals call 211. In immediate danger, call 911.

Generated date is not a new verification date. Each entry retains its own information-review date; a website/link check does not verify funding or contact accuracy.

10. Love INC of Clarion County

Emergency help | Benefits and financial help

Telephone intake connects neighbors with church ministries, volunteers and community resources for unmet needs.

Office / program: 814-316-9052

Email: info@loveincclarion.org

Location: 515 Main Street, Clarion, PA 16214

Who may qualify: Clarion County residents or families attending a partner church; phone intake determines available help. Official about page also includes families attending a partner church. Eligibility outside Clarion County must be confirmed by intake; no blanket Armstrong or Jefferson coverage is asserted.

Availability and next steps: The organization explicitly says it cannot guarantee that a particular need will be met. Call for intake rather than sending an application by email.

Provider website: https://loveincclarion.org/contact/

Official source: https://loveincclarion.org/about/

Information reviewed: October 18, 2026. Latest website/link check: November 11, 2026.

16. Pennsylvania Utility Assistance - CAP, CARES and Hardship Programs

Utilities and heating

The PUC explains utility customer-assistance programs, hardship funds, usage-reduction services and payment arrangements. Contact the utility named on your bill for programs it offers.

Office / program: 800-692-7380

Who may qualify: Programs differ by utility, household income and circumstances. The PUC information page is not an application or a guarantee of shutoff protection.

Availability and next steps: Begin with your utility's assistance department. Programs and available funding vary. The PUC can help with unresolved utility issues.

Provider website: https://www.puc.pa.gov/about-the-puc/consumer-education/utility-assistance-programs/

Information reviewed: October 18, 2026. Latest website/link check: November 11, 2026.

17. Pennsylvania Utility Law Project - Utility Hotline

Utilities and heating | Legal help

Potential free legal help with utility disconnection and related utility problems.

Office / program: 844-645-2500

Email: utilityhotline@pautilitylawproject.org

Who may qualify: Contact the local legal-services program first. PULP's hotline is for people who still need assistance after that step; eligibility screening applies. Statewide Pennsylvania service.

Availability and next steps: Legal assistance, not a utility-bill grant. Representation and outcomes are not guaranteed.

Provider website: https://www.pautilitylawproject.org/ineedhelp/

Information reviewed: October 18, 2026. Latest website/link check: November 11, 2026.
